

Asian Economic Development and the Collaborative Relations among EU, ASIA and JAPAN

—EU and ASEM under the Presidency of Hungary and Poland

Organized by: Aoyama Gakuin University

Auspices of: Japanese Foreign Ministry, European Office (ASEM Bureau),

Institute for International Studies and Training, EU-Japan Center for Industrial Cooperation, Hungarian Foreign Ministry, EU Office and Asian Office  , Polish Embassy.

Supported by: Simul International

Place: The International Conference Hall, 12th floor, Soken Building, Aoyama Gakuin University

*If you would like to join the Conference, please kindly send your name and affiliation to the following e-mail address: eu.and.asia@gmail.com . You can also join the conference without sending an e-mail.

9th July 2011 (Saturday)

Opening Remarks

10:00-10:30 a.m.

Professor Sadayoshi Ito (President of Aoyama Gakuin University)

Mr. Yoshihiro Isaka (Councilor of the European Office, Japanese Foreign Ministry)

First Session

10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

The EU and Asia

---How could we develop sustainably collaborating with the EU and Asia?

Chair: Professor of Seiichiro Takagi (Aoyama Gakuin University)

1. Mr. Hiroshi Tsukamoto (President and General Manager of Institute for International Studies and Training, EU-Japan Center for Industrial Cooperation)
How could we learn from recent lessons of Fukushima Nuclear Power incidents in Japan and Solar Energy Power Plants in Spain?
2. Mr. Peter Wintermantel (Director of the European Office, Hungarian Foreign Ministry)
The Hungarian Presidency from inside: priorities, results and experiences
3. Mr. Radislav Tyszkiewicz (First Secretary of the Polish Embassy)
The EU Development with the Neighbor Countries, and Relations between the EU and Asia

Commentator: Professor Satoshi Amako (Waseda University)

Asia and Europe seeing from the Rising China

----Trial for the Coexisting Sovereignty under the Global Era---

The EU and ASEM ---How does the Trans-Regional Collaboration develop among the EU, ASIA and Japan?

Chair: Takahiro Okubo (former Asian Bureau, European Office, Japanese Foreign Ministry)

1. Professor Dr. Hong Zhou (Director, Institute of European Studies, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences)
China and the EU--- Asian Development and the role of China, and ASEM
2. Mr. Hiroshi Kawamura (ASEM Bureau, European Office, Japanese Foreign Ministry)
ASEM and Japan---The effort of the Japanese Government
3. Professor Lee Sungsi (Waseda University)
Korea-Japan Historical Questions, comparing to the European Historical Questions---Asia and Europe Meeting---

Commentator: Professor Lee Jong Won (Rikkyo University)
ASEM from the Perspective of East Asian Regionalism

Reception at IV Hall, Aogaku Kaikan 5:30-7:30 p.m.

10th July 2011 (Sunday)

Third Session

1:00-5:00 pm (Coffee Break 2:30-3:00 p.m.)

Development among Europe, Asia and Japan

How did the important historical relations work among Europe, Asia, and Japan?

Chair: Professor Takashi Oshimura (Aoyama Gakuin University)

1. Dr. Szerdahelyi Istvan (Director of the Asian Office, Hungarian Foreign Ministry, former Professor of Budapest University)
Hungarian Presidency in the EU and relations with Asia and Japan
2. Professor Atsushi Otsuru (Kobe University)
The Importance of the Historical Relations between the Habsburg Monarchy and Japan
---POW of Germany, Hungary, and Poland in Japan in WWI---
3. Professor Brij Tankha (University of Delhi, Department of East Asian Studies, India)
The Past in the Present ---India, Japan and Asia---

Commentator: Professor Kumiko Haba (Aoyama Gakuin University)
The importance of the Historical Relations among Europe, Asia, and Japan
---The Role of Coudenhove-Kalergi and Mitsuko---

Ending Remarks

4:30-5:00 p.m.

Professor Jitsuo Tsuchiyama (Vice President of Aoyama Gakuin University)

Professor Takashi Oshimura (Aoyama Gakuin University)

